A curious instance of bold pocket picking is related at the expense of the senior partner of one of the oldes and most extensive jewelry firms of New York. A well dressed person appeared one day at the jewelry and ordered a finger ring of peculiar construction, with a sharp steel blade concented in it, and to be controlled by a movement of the thumb of the same hand. This was before the advent of expert London pickpockets, and on the delivery of the ring the manufacturer inquired its use. The purchaser gave some plausible explanation and departed. No somer had he gone than the jeweler discovered the real use of the ring. He pocket had been car open with it, and the money just paid for the ring had been stolen by the skillful thief.

In Paris an enterprising hair dresser conceived the bright idea that as murhrooms grow so quickly they ought of course to make hair grow with equal rapidity. Wassington, Ronder, July 2:

SENTE.—The Senter concurred to the House sementments to the bill to define the duting of members and argulants the appointment of officers of the Newy and the bill goes to the sed and sent back to the House for concurrence in amendments.

Mr. Howard offered a resolution that the joint committee on retrenchment be instructed to inquire into the mode of the oditecting and choposal made of cuptured and abandoned property in the States intely in rebuilton, by officers and agents of the Treasury department. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Chandler said that last December he promised on the floor of the Senate to introduce the present British neutrality laws of the two countries, and he had found them the identical same laws under which in this country the Feniane were stopped from invading Canada, and the law under which the British sailors were enlisted for the rebelipirate service. It would be seen at a glance that it was a mere farce to continue such laws. He, therefore, asked the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Refusions be directed to inquire into the expediency of repealing the neutrality laws, Mr. Cowan objected and the resolution lies over.

Mr. Trumbuil offered the following resoluall of 1804.

Mr. Wilson moved to ainend the above by substituting a proviso, that the Secretary of War be suthorized to pay out of that known as the commutation draft fund, a sum not to exceed $800 each, for slaves owned by loyal men and mustered into the service, provided, that before recovering any such compensation, the distinguity and that he swrited himself of every opportunity to assist the Union forces in the contest against the rebels.

Mr. Wilson's amendment was concurred in by ayes 29, nays 6.

Mr. Wilson's amendative to by ayes 29, nays 6.

The question was then on the amendment as amended.

Mr. Sherman inquired how much there was in the commutation fund.

Mr. Wilson said it was more than $6,-

Mr. Sherman asked if that would be enough.
Mr. Johnson said it would be more than enough.
Mr. Witson did not believe it would.
Mr. Johnson spoke in favor of the amendment, and hoped it would be adopted.
Mr. Cresswell said the amount of the commutation was $9,514,923, between $,000 and 9,000 colored men were enlisted in Maryland; of these about one-half were slaves, and the commissioners had estimated that it would take $762,000 to comply with this law in Maryland, which would leave nearly $9,000,000 for the claims of Delaware. Kentucky and Missouri.
Mr. Wilson offered an amendment, in the form of a proviso, that no money shall be paid under this provision until the Commissioners appointed under the act of June, 1884, shall have made their final report. This was agreed to.
Mr. Chandler, from the Committee on Commerce, reported an amendment appropriation $15,000 for the erection of a light house at Dema bay, Lake Superior. Adopted.
Mr. Chandler reported an amendment appropriating $5,000 for a light house at New Mayen, Michigan.
Mr. Chandler also moved to appropriate $900,000 instead of $70,000 as proposed, for the repair and completion of the light house in the Straits of Mackinso.
Mr. Grimes moved that midshipmen and acting midshipmen of the United State Navy be entitled to one ration of commutation.
Adopted.
The Senate then went into extra session, acting midshipmen of the United State Navy be entitled to one ration or commutation. Adopted.

The Senate then went into extra session, and at haif past four adjourned to meet at haif past seven in the evening.

HOUSE.—Mr. Bingnam introduced a bill to provide for increased revenue from imported work, which was read three times and referred to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, and ordered printed. It consists of the wool sections of the revised tariff bill passed by the House and postponed in the Senate, except that the ad valorem duty is increased from ten to eleven per cent. on raw wool, and on woolen manufactured goods the specific duty is reduced from fifty to forty per cent. per pound.

Mr. Delano offered a resolution that the House meet during this week at eleven o'clock, and that there be a recess daily from haif past four till haif gast seven, and that the first business in order in the evening sessiohs shall be tills on the Speaker's table, which was adopted.

Heavy on the Temperance Movement.

At the Rebel District Convention held yesterdey, at the courthouse, Colonel—mark Colonel—Black submitted the report of the committee on resolutions. The gallant Colonel—Colonel of the home guard veteran militia—after the report had been read, stated that the delegates from Vanderburgh and Posey counties required the passage of a resolution against the enactment of a temperance law. The committee, by a decisive vote, had refused to report such a resolution, but the gallant Colonel—he earned his title by active service in the active campaign of Blackyord's Grovel—was not to be thwarted in any such manner. He therefore moved the adoption of a resolution ferness the much dreaded temperance bill. As the Colonel—mark Colonel (he led his command in search of John Morgan from the old brewery to the sait wells)—was backed by a Vanderburgh delegation, which happened to be five-wixths of the convention, and as the vote was taken by votee, of course the Colonel—mark Colonel (he made a brillant dash across Pigeon creek in search of Adam Johnson)—carried his point.

Hence the result of the vote was fattering to the Colonel, but there are some persons who wish to know how it happened that seven counties in the copyention, by their committeemen, didn't want to say a word on the temperance question, while only two counties had the bol iness to speak out against the movement.

It must be flattering to our antit temperance counties had the boliness to speak out against the movement.

It must be flattering to our anti temperance radicals to know that seven counties in this District were mum on the temperance question in convention, and, of course, will send temperance fanatics to the Legislature if the radicals can carry the day. But such a catastrophe will be avoided by the election of good, reliable Democrats.—Reansville Courier.

liable Democrats.—Evansville Courier.

A few days ago a case was called for trial in the Supreme Court, in New York city, which gives a lively idea of the heavy sums of money that are now and then dependant upon litigation, and also of the enormous fees which such litigants are called on to pay for professional advice and service. This action was brought by Henry May and others, of Baltimore, against Robert 4. Walker, formerly Secretary of the Treasury. The plaintiffs aver that they were retained by Mr. Walker in the well fairly a Amaden case, and were to be paid $40,000 if their gained the suit. At a subsequent period Mr. Walker compromised with his opponents, and received the sum of $1,400,000 for his share in the property, and on the the plaintiffs claim a proportionate fee, and lay their claim at $20,000 or one-half the sum they said they were promised. There was an imposing display or counsel in court, but the case went over to the next term.

A COOL DEMAND.—The friends is Congress of the project to build a northern Facilic rail-road are the coolest personages, we warrant, bear on the found in this lost weather. thence to the open air.

A woman got on a train at Crestline, Onto, the other day, and instead of entering the cars, took her position, between the baggage and express cars, noping by so doing to escape the notice of the conductor and get a free ride. Soon after the train was in motion a sparle from the engine set her clothing on fire, which she endured as long as possible, but at length, while the frain was passing a pond of water, the leaped off. This movement being observed, the train was backed, and the woman was found lying by the side of the track, her clother still on free, but not bleating, and her head badly brulsed. head badly bruised. She had $40 with her.

Ruskin abates not a jot of his sharp, biting, sarcastic style in his new easys. This bit from one of them is exceedingly pungent:
"You women of England are all now shricking with one voice—you and your clergymen together—because you hear of your Bible being attacked. If you choose to obey your Bibles, you will never care who attacks them. It is just because you never tuffill a single downright precept of the book that you are so careful of its credit. The Bible tells you to dress plainly, and you are mad for finery; the Bible tells you to bave pity on the poor, and you crush them under your carriage wheels; the Bible tells you to do judgment and justice, and you do not know, nor care to know so much as what the Bible word justice means."

From Rev. J. NEWFOR BROWN, D. D., editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge and Christian Chrossics, Philadelphia. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distruct of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no unficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the bonefit of others. I do this title more readily in yegard to Hoofman's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. E. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoumaker, eag, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of those Bitters at the beginning he remova or an experiment to be a suffering from great and long continued debility.
